GAY TAKE-AWAY

DAN FORTUNE

Next Magazine's celebs of New York reveal their favorite take-out joints.

about...

Broadway and music publicist by day, Dan Fortune also hits the turntables as DJ for Lush & Lively, the weekly Sunday evening party at the Time Out New York Lounge downstairs at New World Stages, the Midtown theater complex. He always plays a unique blend of vintage tunes ranging from disco covers of show tunes to hip '60s pop standards and chart hits. He has provided the music at events for the GLAAD Media Awards and The Roundabout Theater Company. So, what's Dan's plan for dinner?

"The best place for take out in Hell's Kitchen is the Mexican restaurant Arriba Arriba (762 Ninth Ave, 212-489-0810) for their Frozen Margaritas ($8.00). The best are mango and raspberry. I usually start with the Guacamole ($6.50), and then my main course is one of their two specialties: Grilled Shrimp Salad ($16.95), one of the tastiest salads in the city, or the Mixed Alambre Platter ($17.95), which has delicious rice with red and green sauces."

Lush & Lively with DJ Dan Fortune, Sunday nights 6pm-10pm, Time Out New York Lounge at New World Stages (340 W 50th St, 646-871-1730). Visit NewWorldStages.com for more info.
